

WELCOME to UNIRIGHTS

The Universal Human Rights Network carries out its mission through numerous programs, projects, initiatives, and campaigns designed to bring about beneficial results for the victims of human rights abuse.

UNIRIGHTS the Universal Human Rights Network is a Washington D.C, USA based Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) founded in 2001 by a group of human rights lawyers and activists. The principal functions of the organization are advocating public policies that enhances the respect for human rights and provide legal remedies and humanitarian assistance to victims of human rights abuses. In addition, the encouragement of sustainable development, democracy and civil society through monitoring human rights and observation of elections and trials on a international level for branches of human rights.

The organization works at national and international level through collaboration and partnerships with individual human rights defenders, NGO's IGO's, and Governments for the full impartial and unbiased implementation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the relevant Covenants thereto. The organization carries out its mandate through various programs, projects, campaigns and initiatives related to human rights.